

The Aims of King's Ely

In the context of a secure, stable yet dynamic environment, rooted in Christian values, King's Ely aims:

- to provide and maintain a culture of integrity and trust in which childhood and youth are honoured and people of all races, faiths and backgrounds feel valued and respected;
- to promote self-knowledge and develop skills for life through an open-minded approach to education;
- in every context to provoke high expectation, strong self-esteem and high achievement;
- to meet individual needs be they educational or pastoral and to allow each pupil to find a voice;
- to cherish the heritage and history of our city and our school and to live the truths for which they stand;
- to promote personal and social responsibility for self, the school and for local and wider communities;
- to seek and embrace the challenges and opportunities life presents thereby enhancing personal development and leadership skills;
- to foster creativity and independence of mind and incite a continuing love of learning.
